Background to 2017 Retreat and Why I Know 'Intention' Works!

In January this year I took the time to really consider what I wanted for 2016 and beyond. I used the analogy of a train, and said to everyone around me, if life is a train, I want to be on board the bullet train i.e. the fast train. I had already experienced a year flash before me with no clear intention or direction, and that resulted in no changes no growth... so no more!

This year I had a real desire to accelerate my personal growth – for me this included deepening my meditation experience, evolving as a person, travel, contribution, increasing wealth and well-being.

These motivators unfolded as quickly as the train left the 2016 platform - the year simply progressed - Fast, always moving ahead, focussed, determined, centred, happy, energised, inspired, challenges dissolved to opportunities...

Meditation and wellness retreats, luxury holidays in Australia and overseas, purchasing an investment property, new business opportunities, opportunities to give back to community, personally meeting exceptional and extraordinary teachers, coaches, motivators, to finding inspiration & wisdom in daily interactions with complete strangers.

At each point there was a sign pointing to the next...and willingly I followed, KNOWING I was heading in the right direction. Personally and professionally huge growth. Busy year...absolutely...though no ounce of tiredness...more enthusiastic, more joy, contentment, love, bliss...

A new year is approaching so I'm inviting you to make the decision now to set your direction, gain the tools and confidence you need to live the life YOU DREAM!
